LITERARY.

Pleasures of Authorship.—A man does not read out of vanity, nor in company, but to amuse his own thoughts. If the reader, from disinterested and merely intellectual motives, relishes an author's "fancies and good nights," the last may be supposed to have relished them no less. If he laughs at a joke, the inventor chuckled over it to the full as much.—If he is delighted with a phrase, he may be sure the writer jumped at it; if he is pleased to cull a straggling flower from the page, he may believe that it was plucked with no less fondness from the face of nature. Does he fasten, with gathering brow and looks, intent, on some difficult speculation? He may be convinced that the writer thought it a fine thing to split his brain in solving so curious a problem, and to publish his discovery to the world. There is some satisfaction in the contemplation of power; there is also a little pride in the conscious possession of it. With what pleasure do we read books? If authors could but feel this, or remember what they themselves once felt, they would need no other temptation to persevere.—Hazlitt.

Southey.—A writer in Bentley's Miscellany indulges in some excellent observations on Southey's life and productions, from which we extract the following just paragraph touching the defects of the Laureate's poetry:

His imagination was grand and lofty, but not voluptuous. He had an imperfect sense of the luxury of beauty—he knew it only in abstract forms—the reality awakened no enthusiasm. Hence we have so little passion in his writings—so little truthful emotion—hence they are so Greek and stoical, and so rarely touch the hearts or thrill the sympathies of his readers. Wide-reaching research in no other regions seems to have carried out of the way of the fountains of tenderness and delight that flowed close at hand. We have love, and despair, and a hundred other great emotions in his poems, but like his lilacs and laburnums, they are only painted, not felt; and he who is not conscious of the capability of the emotion himself can never make it felt by others. This is one of the insuperable obstructions to the popularity of his poetry, which is universal only in its erudition.

Moralist Bitten.—Campbell, the poet went to Paisley races, got prodigiously interested in the first race, and betted on the success of one horse to the amount of £50, with Professor Wilson. At the end of the race he thought that he had lost the bet, and said to Wilson, "I owe you £50, but really, when I reflect that you are a professor of moral philosophy, and that betting is a sort of gambling only fit for blacklegs, I cannot bring my conscience to pay the debt." "Oh," said Wilson, "I very much approve of your principles, and mean to act upon them. In point of fact, Yellow Cap, on whom you betted, has won the race, and, but for conscience, I ought to have paid you £50, but you will excuse me."—Beattie's Life of Campbell.

During the session of the Circuit Court in Lexington, Kentucky, a most fearful ugly man was seen daily. He was always on hand, and perfectly hideous. One of the lawyers could bear it no longer, and said to him—

"Well, you are the ugliest white man I ever saw."

The poor bumpkin burst into a hearty laugh, and said—

"Well, I can't help it, can I?"

"No," answered the son of Blackstone—"no, you can't help it; but, confound you, you could stay at home."

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 8.

NEW-YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

New York, March 31, 1851.

During the last three or four days the weather in this city has been like summer, and the grass and willows in the Park begin to look verdant again. The return of spring is welcome even to the most miserable, though I suspect that sometimes the young and gayly-dressed think the season of verdure and flowers was made only for them. As I was walking by the College Green this morning, two poor wretched looking women passed near me. Well-dressed pride would hardly have allowed any relationship, even as far back as the days of our common ancestor, Adam. One of the poor creatures said to the other, "See, how the grass has grown." "I love to see it look so green!" replied her companion. They looked grateful, and for the moment, at least, quite happy.—There was a touch of humanity in it, that put to shame the indifference with which the beneficence of the Creator is regarded by many that rustle in silks and satins, and feed on the dainties of the earth. You may laugh at my "sentiment," but really this was my first lesson, this morning.

Speaking of the very poor, who are so poor as they that never feel a throb of gratitude to God when they go out of doors of a morning in spring, and see what the Creator has been doing for their earth during the night?

Among the many representatives of poverty that I meet with in my daily walks, the most abject, squalid, and far-removed from humanity in external appearance, are certain bloated, ragged creatures, in tattered remnants of female apparel, who may be seen early every morning like so many buzzards, picking over the contents of the receptacles for offal in the rear of the hotels, and loading their baskets with enough to feed them during the day and perhaps pay for a little rum, besides. In their red and swollen features and persons, covered with filth and vermin, it is difficult to discover any trace of former decency, nor in their harsh, husky or grating voices can any remains of siren sweetness be recognized now, as they swear away at each, and snarl like curs over a bone; yet some of these miserable creatures once sat at the very tables the offal of which they are now glad to get; and some of them (and that not many years ago) used to promenade Broadway in all the pride of dress and beauty. We are sometimes asked, What becomes of the public women of New York—those gay creatures that bask for a few seasons in the smiles of the libertines, and sport Stewart's richest silks, and Madame ———'s costliest Paris Millinery, through your streets? Well, this is what becomes of the most of them. Their charms soon fade—they become intemperate, and, cast out of the finer establishments to make way for fresh victims, descend from one depth of physical degradation to another and another, until they become loathsome even to the most brutal debauchee. They are sent to Blackwell's Island, either as thieves or drunkards, and in the intervals between one incarceration and another, they may be seen picking a wretched sustenance from among the offals of the hotels, or begging at the corners of the streets.

But let us turn from this disagreeable picture.

The steamship Georgia left New Orleans on the 29th with a large number of passengers. She is expected to arrive here on the 8th next, and will return again on the 11th April, with the U. S. mails and Stimson & Co's New Orleans and Mobile Express freight.

The new steamer Winfield Scott will not be ready to leave, as proposed, on the 1st of April. She will not leave till May first.—Her consort the steamship Union will arrive from New Orleans on the 7th, and sail again on the 15th of April.

For the murders robberies and suicides of the past two days, I must refer you to the newspapers.

BARATARIA.—A Mr. Pollock has been arrested, charged with the burglary committed some time since. On examination he was held to bail for $300—a sum altogether inadequate, and still more so, that one of his bail was a man already under arrest for a high crime.

The citizens had expressed a laudable determination to maintain the supremacy of the laws.

☞ The Block from Wisconsin, for the Washington Monument, has been exhibited for a day or two at Sweet & Reed's Warehouse. It is a fine block of marble from the Sauk County quarry, bearing the inscription in raised in raised letters:

WISCONSIN,

ADMITTED MAY 29, 1848.

It was prepared by Mr. Wood, of Madison.

FREE SPEECH.

This city has been in throes for the last 40 hours, on the subject of Free Speech. The right to express one's sentiments freely on all subjects, amenable only to the laws, is a priceless heritage, left us in the last will and testament of our Revolutionary sires, and guaranteed us by the organic law of this State. An orthodox disciple of the doctrine of Free Speech, we have practiced our faith, by speaking our sincere convictions of the character and tendency of the proposed lectures of the Ex-Monk of La Trappe.

How has our Free Speech been received by a part of those who were so clamorous for the exercise of this right by Mr. Leahey, yesterday? Why, some seriously proposed to tar and feather us, and sack and destroy our office. Well, considering the contingencies and risks of such an experiment, such a course has, at least, the merit of brute courage.

Another way in which some have shown their love for Free Speech, is, by trying to suppress our paper, by stopping its subscriptions. They came into our office, with the air of a master ordering his slave, and directed us—"Stop my paper." Such men have no true idea of Free Speech, or of Freedom. With them, Free Speech means to speak just as they think, to humor their whims, to promote their isms, advocate their sect, and oppose what they dislike. Such men want an Editor to be their dog, and bark just when they tell him to, and they ought to have none but whipped spaniels for their Editors, all the days of their life. Such men especially need our paper to teach them what Freedom and Independence are, and to shame them into something like manhood. And it is some consolation to know that—tho' they will no longer pay for it—they will still read it, even if they have to go to the barber's shop or the hotel for it, or borrow it of their neighbors. Well, we are glad they get the reading of it, tho' it is at our expense, and we don't despair of doing something for them yet.

But we must be allowed to say that we have been treated with more bigotry and intolerance by some members of the orthodox Protestant Churches here, than by any other, and all other classes. Such men make a beautiful spectacle in declaiming against the bigotry and intolerance of the Catholics!—They are clamorous for free speech for Mr. Leahey, as per advertisement, no matter how obscene and filthy his communications, but they cannot tolerate free speech in the Free Democrat. When their poor shrivelled souls expand to the fulness of a whole idea, so that they can comprehend the obligation of justice to all denominations of christians, they will doubtless be ready to subscribe again for our paper. Till then, a frank and friendly adieu. Your absent places are filled five fold. There are free hearts and hands enough, in this city, to sustain a Free and Independent press. And if there were not, the publication of a newspaper is not a thousandth part as essential to our comfort and happiness, as the maintenance of a free spirit. The fetters of party or sect—when they bind us to violate our convictions of right, we spurn them. The rewards of a lucrative business, and the flattering prospects of a rapidly increasing patronage—when presented as inducements to praise what our soul hateth, we scorn them. God endowed us with an instinctive love of right, and an unquenchable hatred of wrong, and we are not ready to debase His image in our soul, at the bidding of any body of men, religious or political.

DAVID BONHAM.—The Madison Democrat, semi-officially, we suppose, gives the following as good and sufficient reasons for the pardon of Bonham.

1. Keene and Bonham built and occupied in common, a mill on Government land, which land, coming into market, was entered clandestinely by Keene, and he commenced the removal of the machinery of the mill.—Bonham threatened that if he persisted in the act he would shoot him. With this warning, Keene persisted and Bonham shot him.

2. Bonham repeatedly declared that he thought his gun was only loaded with powder—that he fired only to intimidate and not to kill.

3. The verdict of the Coroner's jury went far to establish this fact, as it showed that the death might have been occasioned by a shell gathered up with the leaves that were used for wadding.

4. He has already suffered much—twice respited within sight of the gallows, when he had passed all that is fearful in an ignominious death, except the bodily pain.

Since then he has quietly submitted to years of imprisonment, and no one now believes that the community would be worse for his being at large.

Such are the reasons given—let them have such weight as they deserve.

In favor with the Women.—A drunken man fell asleep by the road side, where a pig found him and began to root his face. "Who is kissing me now?" exclaimed the drunkard; "what a capital thing it is to be in favor with the women!"

☞ Ronge, the German Catholic Reformer, is lecturing in London.

SHIFTING THE RESPONSIBILITY.—The Sentinel, which advertised the lectures of the Ex-Monk, of La Trappe, this morning, raps our knuckles for exposing the character of the man and his lectures, and accuses us of fanning the flame of excitement against him. Privately, we are told, they say, we have a great deal to answer for, for the row here.—Wonder if we didn't get up the riots in Detroit, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, and in most of the places where he has lectured!

We challenge the Sentinel to bring forward a single man, who was engaged in the disturbance on Sunday evening, who was excited by our article. We believe that if the other papers had, instead of advertising his lectures, discountenanced the proposals of the Ex-Monk, as ours did, there would have been little excitement, and no disturbance in this city. And we are not alone in this belief, as the following brief communication from Mr. Barry, handed us for publication, will show:

MR. EDITOR:—I can but highly approve of your article exposing the character of the Rev. Mr. Leahey, and regret that a similar course was not adopted by other editors, which would very much, if not entirely, have allayed the excitement that has disgraced our city. For this wise and prudent course, please consider me a subscriber.

GARRETT BARRY.

Milwaukee, April 8, 1851.

MASSACHUSETTS SENATOR.—The Telegraph brings intelligence to the Buffalo papers of the result of the 20th ballot, as follows:

BOSTON, APRIL 2.

Sumner defeated again. The 20th ballot resulted with Sumner's wanting 12 votes of an election. Further ballotting postponed for three weeks.

☞ The fire Department at St. Louis is to be re-organized by abolishing the present system of volunteer companies, and establishing six companies, of forty men each, at a salary of $80 per annum for each man. The salary of the Chief Engineer is to be twelve hundred dollars, and he is to be allowed two assistants at six hundred dollars each. The total annual expense of the department after the first year is set down at twenty-nine thousand four hundred dollars. The insurance companies are to be taxed to support the new system.

FOLLOWING ADVICE.—Mr. Fillmore is evidently determined to follow the advice recently given him by the New York Globe, which is as follows:

"Policy, therefore, would dictate to Mr. Fillmore the immediate abandonment of that timid, cautious and excessively prudent course he has hitherto pursued. His present course subjects his administration to the same evils which afflicted that of Mr. Tyler; The want of public confidence. The tactics of Mr. Tyler, if now adopted by Mr. Fillmore, would not fail to be eminently successful. Let him take the field boldly—drive the Wooley-heads everywhere from office—rally his friends, raise his standard—repel all advances from Seward—throw himself on the support of Union whigs alone—and he could not fail to make himself the candidate of the whig party in 1852."

GERMAN CATHOLIC MEETING.

At a meeting, called by the Rev. Dr. SALTZMAN of St. Mary's Church, on 7th April, 1851, a large number of the German Catholics assembled, in the school room of said church. The object of the meeting being stated by Dr. SALTZMAN, the same was organized by appointing AUG GREULICH as Chairman, and Mr BODDEN as Secretary.

Messrs. Siegfried, Hoeger, Congar, Ott, Koenigracker, Castler, and Steinle were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting in regard to the excitement which prevailed in our city.

While the Committee was absent the meeting was ably addressed in favor of peace, by the Rev. Mr. Urbaneck, who requested the meeting most earnestly to keep the peace, and obey the laws o our adopted country.

The Committee reported the following Resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we most earnestly disapprove of the occurence at the Methodist Church, last night, not only as citizens of this State, but also from the principles of our church, which does not know the resort to arms and disturbances as a defence, but which always takes part for good order and peace, to which we are resolved to adhere, and therefore disapprove and condemn all disorderly and riotous movements.

A. GREULICH, Chairman.

M. BADDEN, Secretary.

Female Courage.—A few nights since, at a late hour, an old lady, in Washington City, discovering a rogue in the act of entering her house by the window, fired a pistol at the intruder who fled in hot haste, carrying with him, it is supposed, a few shot in his body.

The Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court, sitting at Boston on Saturday, found indictments against all those parties who were bound over by Commissioner Hallet for having been connected with the rescue of Shadrach.

The Navy of the United States at present consists of 75 vessels, carrying two thousand and eleven guns. These comprise twelve ships of the line, fourteen frigates, twenty-one sloops of war, four brigs, five steam frigates, and ten steamships of which three are first class.

Havana's Contribution to the World's Exhibition.—"I have just seen," writes the Havana correspondent of the Newark Advertiser, "the Cigar Case made for the Exhibition at London; it has a glass top, and the four sides are made of the same material. It contains eleven thousand cigars, and cost the maker three thousand dollars, a most beautiful affair, with the most perfectly made cigars ever fabricated."

LOCAL MATTERS.

The Meeting Yesterday.

A great crowd assembled yesterday afternoon, at the Methodist Church, to take into consideration the outrage of the preceding evening. But a moiety of them could find a foothold inside of the church, and many of them did not wish to enter, expecting there would be a muss. Some two or three attempted to make disturbance, but were quickly hustled out. After the meeting had been organized and a Committe of five on Resolutions were appointed, Rev. Mr. Ives, Pastor of St. Peters, requested to be heard before the Committee adopted their Resolutions, and spoke briefly, in substance, as follows:

From the representations made in the advertisement of Mr. Leahey who was to lecture to-night, and from his known course in other places, many believe that he had come amongst us to prove that all of our Priests are whoremongers, and that our wives and daughters, who attend the confessional, are prostitutes. Such respresentations exasperated some of the Catholics, but the Priests had endeavored to quiet them, and, as they thought, had been successful, and when they heard last night and this morning of the riot and disturbance, no one could have more regretted and deprecated it than they did. And now he wished to say that he would request that the resolutions should be so framed that they should not condemn the principles of an entire Christian denomination on account of the riotous and disorderly conduct of a few unworthy members.

In conclusion he read a card which had been published by himself and his brethren of the clergy and laity, strongly disapproving of the violence and disturbance of the preceding evening, and offering to indemnify their Methodist brethren for the damage done to their Church. His remarks were received with repeated and hearty cheers.

The resolution introduced by Mr. G. E. H. Day, and adopted, highly approving of the sentiments of the card of the Catholic clergy and laity, and of the remarks of Rev. Mr. Ives, fully exonerate the Catholics, as a body, from all blame, and places the responsibility of the row, where it belongs, upon a few misguided individuals. We think the clergy and leading members of the Catholic Church have set their Protestant brethren a good example.

We trust that the excitement is now over, and that the wrath, which some of our Protestant brethren have roused against us, for speaking the truth, will give place to a more Christian spirit.

☞ The Monk LEAHEY, speaks at three o'clock this afternoon, at the Free Congregational Church. The peaceable character of our citizens was shown in the fact that though he was in all parts of the streets this morning, making arrangement for his meeting, no disposition was manifested on the part of any to insult or disturb him.

Considerable preparations are making to protect him in speaking, which we think are altogether unnecessary. We will wager all of our old boots that nothing short of a fire alarm would call twenty men together for any active service whatever. Cool weather and a seasonable rain, together with sober reflection, have had their natural effect, and no excitement whatever exists a present.

☞ We have received from the Rev. Mr. Miter, a card, disclaiming any recommendation by him, of Mr. Leahey, which we shall be happy to publish, to-morrow.

EXAMINATION.—The examination at the Normal Institute and High School, under the direction of Mrs. Parsons and Miss Mortimer, and other well qualified teachers, commenced yesterday afternoon. It is to be continued through to-day and to-morrow. Many parents of the scholars attended, and were highly pleased with their advancement.

☞ Jabe says that an independent paper is one that always gives expression to our prejudices, and never crosses our track.—When it does that, or advocates doctrines contrary to what we believe in, it is an independent paper no longer.

DUCKING.—Those who are fond of sporting have fine times after the ducks down on the marsh. Some 100 per day have been bagged within a short time, by the sharpshooters.

☞ A number of guns were fired off, around the city last night, which created some apprehension, at a distance, that injury was being done by them. It was, however, only a few of the boys who were celebrating in this way, we suppose, the "bit iv fun" they had enjoyed.

WELL OUT OF A BAD SCRAPE.—What is most remarkable this morning, is a broad grin on everybody's face. People seem to be glad that they had nothing worse to be excited about, and that no greater excesses were committed while they were excited.

☞ The Panorama of the overland route to California is postponed to Thursday evening, April 10th.

The sword worn by Napoleon at Marengo has been bought by the Czar for 50,000 roubles, ($32,000.) The buyer already has a large collection of the relics of the great soldier.

A CARD.

MILWAUKEE, April 7th, 1851.

MR. EDITOR:—Having permitted the Rev. E. Leahey to occupy the pulpit of the Spring street Methodist Episcopal Church, on the evening of the riot, I deem it due to myself, the congregation, and the public generally, to state briefly the ground on which that permission was granted.

1. Mr. Leahey came to our city bearing, what purports to be, regular credentials from a respectable Christian Church.

2. He came recommended by a large number of respectable Ministers of several leading denominations of Christians throughout the country, I could then have no question of the correctness of his Christian or Ministerial standing.

3. He was permitted to occupy the pulpit for the purpose of preaching a gospel sermon, precisely as we would feel free to extend the like courtesy to any other well-accredited Evangelical Minister, and not for the purpose of lecturing against Romanism.—That there might be no misapprehension on this point, I stated distinctly on Sabbath morning, when I gave the notice from the pulpit, that the sermon in the evening was to hold no connection with the lectures to be given during the ensuing week. I will only add, these reasons, I believed sufficient to justify the courtesy I extended to him.

Law and Order Meeting.

At a meeting of the Citizens of Milwaukee in favor of Law and Order, convened at the Methodist Church on Monday afternoon, April 7th, to express their sentiments in reference to the recent outrage committed on Sunday evening last, on the occasion of the delivery of a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Leahey, Dr. E. B. Wolcott was called to the Chair and Herbert Reed chosen Secretary.

After remarks by the Rev. Mr. Ives, and Peter Yates Esq, a committee of five, one from each Ward, was appointed by the Chair, to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The following named persons were appointed said Committee. 1st Ward, Dr. Thomas Spencer; 2d Ward, John B. Vliet; 3d Ward, Peter Yates; 4th Ward, Robert Harper; 5th Ward, Martin Delany.

During the absence of the Committee the meeting was addressed by M. H. Orton and James H Laine, Esqrs.

Rev. Mr. Miller, the pastor of the church, stated that Mr. Leahey was not invited to lecture on Romanism, as some supposed, but that, inasmuch as he came to this city accredited by many of the leading clergymen of the country, he had been invited to occupy the pulpit in the place of the pastor, and preach a sermon.

The Committee after a short absence reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, after being discussed by Messrs. Spencer, Holliday, McGarry, Fuller, Blossom and Messenger.

Resolved, That it is the right of every citizen of the Union to speak, or spread his written thoughts before the community, responsible solely to his country and his God, that they are both lawful and truthful.

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that while it by no means stops to condemn or approve that sort of valor or discretion which prompts to the public discussion of an excitable subject in the midst of a sensitive population, the liberty of speech is an inalienable right of every citizen, and must be maintained at all and every hazard.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Mayor, Sheriff, and other public officers, to bring to justice all such as were engaged in the riotous proceedings of last night.

Mr. Yates offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in view of the late disgraceful proceedings of last evening, it is expedient, as a measure of precaution against the repetition of those scenes, that the Chairman of this meeting call to his aid a committee of 100 prudent and discreet men, to protect Mr. Leahey, and all others disposed to speak to the public, in the peaceful and free exercise of the glorious and never to be surrendered Liberty of Speech.

Which on motion of Levi Blossom, Esq., was amended so as to read "every citizen of Milwaukee" instead of a committee of one hundred persons. The resolution as amended was adopted by acclamation.

On motion of W. J. A. Fuller, the following resolutions, after being discussed by Messrs. Holliday, Paine, McCullough, Booth, Hunt and Fuller, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That as American freemen we are the advocates of unrestricted freedom of speech in its broadest sense, and to secure this right we are ready to stake our sacred honors and our lives.

Resolved, That we invite the Rev. Mr. Leahey, in whose person the aforesaid right has been grossly invaded, to deliver such lectures, and on such subjects as to him may appear advisable and proper; and we do hereby pledge him perfect safety to his person in so doing, and guarantee to him a fair hearing without the hindrance or molestation of any person or persons on earth.

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Milwaukee, are determined to maintain the Rev. Mr. Leahey, or any other citizen of the United States, that may be in our city, or may hereafter enter it, in the full exercise of his religious or political rights, as guaranteed to him by the Constitution of the United States, and the State of Wisconsin.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. McDermott.

Resolved, That all the clergy and elders of this city, be requested to meet on this evening, to take into consideration whether or not the Rev. Mr. Leahey ought to deliver his lecture on Confession, as set forth in his notice.

Which was rejected by an overwhelming majority

Geo. W. H. Day offered the following resolution, which on motion was adopted:

Resolved, That we highly approve of the sentiments expressed in the card published by the Catholic Clergy and Laity of this city, and of the remarks of the Rev. Mr. Ives, in this meeting, believing they will contribute much to the preservation of good order and public peace.

Dr. J. D. Weston offered the following resolution, which on motion was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, unanimously, That the corporation of the City are requested to make an appropriation to the Methodist Episcopal Church of Milwaukee, sufficient to defray the expenses of repairing their church, which was injured on Sunday evening last, by the hands of a ruthless mob

On motion,

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed by the Chair to wait upon the Rev. Mr. Leahey, and request him to deliver a lecture to the citizens of Milwaukee, and arrange the time and place for the delivery of such lecture.

The following persons were appointed as such committee:

Herbert Reed, L. Kennedy, H. D. Garrison and J. H. Vliet.

On motion,

Resolved, That the City papers be requested to publish the proceedings of the meeting.

On motion, adjourned sine die.

A lazy fellow once declared in a public company, that he could not find bread for the family. "Nor I," replied an industrious mechanic, "I am obliged to work for it."

The Great Indian Cave.

I last week visited a newly discovered cave in Crawford county, Indiana. It is on the right bank of Blue river. For magnificence and beauty of scenery, it promises, when fully explored, to rival even the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky. The Epsom Salt Cave, known for nearly half a century, and successfully worked for saltpetre and salts many years since, is about 2 miles long, and in some places 40 or 50 feet wide, and 75 feet high; but has nothing peculiarly interesting in it except a beautiful fluted colum, some 25 feet in diameter, 25 or 30 feet high, all of stalactic matter.

Entering this cave under a jutting rock near the brow of a lofty hill, and descending for about a quarter of a mile, at an angle of 30 or 40 degrees, we entered a small door, and after stooping rather uncomfortably for 60 yards, found ourselves in a large open cave or bat-room, in which tens of thousands of these little animals hung suspended from the rocks in large clusters, like bees in swarming. Farther on, sticks, the size of hop-poles, hickory bark, charcoal and barefooted human tracks were discovered, which must have remained there for a long time, as the door to this part of the cave was so blocked up with rocks when first discovered that a man could not possibly pass. We soon entered an avenue 40 feet wide, and varying in height from 10 to 60 feet—the ceiling is smooth and beautiful, as if finished by the trowel, then suddenly changing, presents the appearance of diversified hanging drapery, and of spotless white. Then again the naked rocks appear.

At the end of this avenue we found ourselves at the foot of a rocky pyramid up which we climbed some 60 feet, and on the top of which stand two beautiful stalagmites some five feet high, eighteen inches in diameter, and as white as the pure Indian marble; and when viewed by the dim light of our candles, presented a strong contrast with the grey walls of lime stone rock. An oblong canopy, some 40 or 50 feet high, is here with beautiful stalactites, suspended from the ceiling. We now found it necessary to crawl upon our faces, "snake it" for about 20 feet, when we came into an avenue wide and high. Turning suddenly to the left, we found ourselves in the midst of scenery of surpassing and exquisite beauty. The entire walls are covered with an incrustation of sulphate of lime, crystalized so as to glisten like ten thousand diamonds in the light. Some of these crystals, a foot in length, an inch wide, and thich as a table knife blade, grew upon this base in a thousand diversified forms. Upon a projection rose at one side of the avenue, great numbers had broken by their weight, and were lying in great profusion at the bottom of the cave. These formations, like the base upon which they grew, are sulphate, and white as the driven snow. Others resembling glass form upon the ceiling as well as the floor from an inch in diameter to the length and size of a common knitting needle, and even smaller.

The incrustation is frequently an inch thick, but more generally from an eigth to a quarter of an inch thick. Much of it has fallen to the floor and is crushed under the feet of the visitor, and the place it occupied on the ceiling is being replaced by new formations. But I am utterally unable to describe it. It must be seen to be appreciated, or any correct idea be formed of its beauty.

We visited many rooms with spacious domes and stalactites of every imaginable size and form, in one apartment the water finds its way over a large range of projecting rocks and the stalactite matter is formed in folds and blades like extended honey combs, and hangs like drapery around the sides of the room. Upon the bottom is formed a great number of little pools of every form, elaxated upon the floor like basins or troughs—the rim of each being perfectly level inclined inward, the stone which forms the basin being not thicker than a paste board.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS,

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.

No. 54 Gold street, New-York,

Continue to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the

"Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture,"

By Henry Stephens, F.R. S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," etc, etc; assisted by Jno. P. Norton, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, etc.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c, the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in semi-monthly numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the steel engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals re-published are as follows, viz:

LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, (Conservative,)
EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whig,)
NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (Free Church,)
WESTMINSTER REVIEW, (Liberal,) and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory)

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," [both by Bulwer,] "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

OR
MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE
BY ALEX. IMRAY, M. D.
Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.
AMERICAN EDITION.
One large Octavo Volume substantially bound.

THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory signs, and distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.

The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described; and the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.

The art of Preserving Health, embracing special Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.

The publishers of the American edition have introduced Dr. Imray's work with short, illustrated, very complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions for the domestic management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the sick room, &c. They have also annexed a comprehensive MOTHER'S MEDICAL GUIDE, containing directions for the preservation of health during pregnancy, rules for managing the lying-in-room, and the treatment of infants, including air, clothing, exercise, &c. Also, a large number of valuable prescriptions, arranged for ready application; and a very full classified table of medicines, exhibiting their medicinal properties, doses and uses.

The Index is unusually complete, making the whole a most perfect and valuable work for families.

It can confidently be recommended to physicians and apothecaries, as well as to the public, as a book that will be found singularly convenient for ready reference.

☞ Agents are wanted to circulate the above work. Several counties in Wisconsin not yet occupied. Address

S. CHAPMAN, General Agent for Wisconsin, at Milwaukee.

Bliss' Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy.

The prevailing diseases of our cold Northern clime, are pulmonary attacks, which alike affect the strong and the weak, and against which no human foresight can provide. It is all important then in this section of the country, that some simple and speedy remedy should be at hand, and accessible to all from its cheapness. This remedy we are happy to say, exists in Bliss's Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy, proved by thousands of cases. But we feel it to be a duty to caution the public against a counterfeit, and purchase only Bliss's Candy, the original and genuine article; observe his signature on each package. For sale by S. GREAT ARRIVAL OF
WINTER GOODS!
191 East Water st., Martin's New Block.

EXTRAORDINARY AND DAILY INCREASING ATTRACTIONS AT

CAMERON'S
NEW-YORK STORE.

Established in Milwaukee in May, 1849,

IN connection with one of the most extensive Importing Houses in New York city, for the purpose of establishing a large and permanent business, on the Cash system.

The proprietors of this already well known and popular establishment take this way of informing numerous patrons, in town and country, that they have made such arrangements to meet the exigencies of their rapidly increasing business, as will enable them to offer still greater inducements to purchasers Their Fall and Winter stock is beyond comparison the most extensive and varied embracing every article usually found in first class houses in the Atlantic cities.

In the Western ountry,

To those who have already dealt with them, they deem it unnecessary to allude to their ability and determination to undersell any other House west of New York city. To those who have not yet examined

THEIR STOCK OR PRICES,

they would say, through their connection in New-York, and an almost unlimited business, they are enabled to prepare every buyer of great experience in New York and Boston markets, and many other good, are impelled direct for their own trade in the original packages, thus securing many that cannot be found at any other establishment here.

New and Choice Styles of Goods,

Their arrangements are so complete that they can, and pledge themselves that they will sell every piece and style of goods as low as they can be bought in the most celebrated cheap stores in New York or Boston Every piece and style of goods in this establishment being bought of first hands or at auction, or imported direct, and consequently from

25 to 30 PER CENT. LESS than Western Merchants pay for them—in fact we sell many styles of goods for less than western merchants pay for them in New York or Boston Every article will be marked at the very lowest price, and will be guaranteed to be in every instance than a similar article can be bought elsewhere

We annex the following list of prices—which we think can hardly fail to convince the public—that this is not one of the humbug pretensions of the day.

Bliss' Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy.—The Codfish has furnished our yeomen with a wide field of labor, and the tastes of our people with a delicious article of food for many years, but it is only until a recent period it has been found, that the oil extracted from the liver of the fish could be used as an article of the materia medica. Since its introduction it has wrought the most wonderful changes in the features of the affections of the throat and lungs. The virtues of Cod Liver Oil are acknowledged the world over, and all these virtues are found combined in Bliss's Candy, which stands unrivalled as a remedy for Coughs, &c. Beware of counterfeits

FIRE, MARINE, AND LIFE INSURANCE.

THE subscriber being duly authorized to act as Agent, is prepared to receive applications and take Risks for Insurance on Buildings and other property, against loss or damage by FIRE. Also against the dangers of navigation, on Goods, and Hulls of Steamboats and Vessels. He also receives applications for LIFE INSURANCE, in three well established and first class Companies.
The subscriber is also the agent for the BERKSHIRE HEALTH INSURANCE COMPANY, and the AMERICAN LIVE STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY, and takes risks in both at moderate rates.
It is the intention of the subscriber to devote his attention to Insurance in all its various branches, and designs to act only for such Companies as do their business fairly and to the satisfaction of those who deal with them.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, Conn.—ANNUITY FUND, $150,000.—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE, with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives, at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum, and no more: it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.
The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.
Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case, free from the claims of creditors. The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.
Pamphlets containing Rates of Premium, and information in relation to the plan of operations, and all necessary papers to effect Insurance, may be obtained at the Agency of this Company.
